

Little as-yet-unnamed baby Wallace Seed arrived into the world auspiciously on 11.12.13 at 8.50am. We were hoping he'd wait till 9.10 but he was in a hurry to get amongst it all.

Megan was utterly awesome. She's an Amazon! She's my hero.

Baby is healthy and we are all well. My 93 year old mother was holding him when he was 10 hours old exclaiming "What a miracle! What a miracle!"

Indeed.

We are all enjoying being home with him and learning all about each other - sleeping is his favourite activity so far, ours is smiling at him!

much love everyone - thanks for all your well wishes leading up to the birth
